

The Kitsap Elementary School clothing donations went directly from the back of an open truck into the hands of some of Haiti's most impoverished communities in Port-au-Prince.